Important Notice/Address Change

The Emergency Medical Systems (EMS) program has moved and now resides at the Nevada State Health Division, located at 4150 Technology Way, Suite 101, Carson City, Nevada 89706. The telephone and facsimile numbers for contacting EMS remain the same.

Fergus Laughridge has retired from the State Health Division's EMS program, effective June 25, 2010, and the interim EMS program manager is Jennifer Dunaway, HPM I.

The EMS Representatives Richard Fenlason, John Lambert, Bill Winters, Bobbie Sullivan, and Bob Health remain in place as your local representative and contact; they will continue to process the certifications, licenses and permits and provide you with technical assistance as requested.

Please mail all applications and correspondence to the address above effective immediately.

We recognize the critical service you provide to the citizens and visitors of Nevada and thank you for your dedication to complying with the requirements for licensed and certified emergency medical technicians and permitting of ambulance services for protection of public safety.

The mission of the Emergency Medical Systems program is to promote and support a system that provides prompt, efficient and appropriate emergency medical care, ambulance transportation and trauma care to the people of Nevada.
